1. Keep any metal items such as jewelry, watches, belt buckles, and coins in a carry-on bag instead of wearing them.
2. Don't wrap gifts
3. Keep personal hygiene items in clear plastic bags in case security officers need to handle them.
4. Pack any sharp items such as scissors and pocket knives in your check-in luggage.
5. Pack shoes last.
6. Avoid overpacking to prevent contents from spilling out if your luggage is inspected.
7. Leave your luggage unlocked.

Diabetics carrying needles and syringes should have a letter from their physician confirming their need for insulin injections.
